CALGARY, ALBERTA – May 24, 2017. DIVERGENT Energy Services Corp. (“Divergent” or the “Corporation”) announces that the Corporation’s board of directors (the “Board”) has considered and accepted John Grisdale’s resignation as a director of the Corporation, effective May 17, 2017, pursuant to the Corporation’s majority voting policy (the “Majority Voting Policy”).

The Majority Voting Policy states that in the event a director is elected by less than a majority of the votes cast at an uncontested meeting of shareholders, the director must resign his position as director. Such was the case at the Corporation’s recent annual and special meeting of shareholders with respect to Mr. Grisdale’s election.

Ken Bagan, Chairman of Divergent, states; “Mr. Grisdale was a valuable resource to the Board of Divergent, we thank him for his service and contributions since 2015 and wish him the very best in his future endeavours.”

The Corporation’s Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee has begun the process to identify a candidate to fill the vacancy on the Board.
